BELIEVED INVASION OF MEXICO BEGUN

FUNSTON'S RIGID CENSORSHIP PREVENTS ALL NEWS OF TROOP MOVEMENTS FROM GETTING OUT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

EL PASO, Texas, March 15.—General Funston has established a censorship as strict as that of the British, French and Germans. Moving picture men have been positively refused an opportunity to catch the troop movements. All messages from all points along the border are strictly scrutinized and a large number have been held up. It is believed by many that the invasion of Mexico has been begun and that the American troops are already on their way to seek Villa.

The Carranzistas deny that they have occupied Hachita.

Bishop Hurst has learned that the large party of American Mormons who are escaping from Mexico have reached Casas Grandes in safety.

SAY RAID WAS PLANNED IN UNITED STATES

CARRANZA'S SUPPORTERS STATE THAT IT HAS BEEN LEARNED VILLA WAS FINANCED BY AMERICANS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

MEXICO CITY, March 15.—Mexicans of good political standing here, who are strong supporters of Carranza, and well versed in the secret history of the events of the past few years and especially of the past few months, state that Villa's raid was planned by financial interests in the United States. They state that there is ample evidence in Carranza's hands to show that certain Americans planned the raid on Columbus and paid Villa for carrying it out in order that they might force the United States to interfere in Mexico.

AMERICAN INFANTRY PATROLS BORDER

PRECAUTIONS AGAINST POSSIBLE RAIDING BEING TAKEN NEAR DOUGLAS, ARIZONA

FORCES OF REPUBLIC CAPTURE TRENCHES ON HILL 265 AND OTHER PLACES IN FACE OF STRONG DEFENSE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, March 15.—In a charge that was irresistible the French troops swept the Germans out of their trenches on Hill 265. They also cleared the Teutons out of Bethincourt and Dead Man's Hill and the Commieres forest. The Germans made a stubborn defense but were finally overcome and the trenches thus captured were held against repeated furious charges of the Kaiser's men.

TRUSTEES MEETING

EIGHTH STREET AND SYCAMORE CANYON ROAD PROCEEDINGS BEGUN

The Board of Trustees met in regular session at the City Hall at 7:30 p. m. Monday evening. All members present at roll call, except Trustee Williams, who entered during the reading of the minutes.

The minutes of the last regular meeting and adjourned meeting of March 7 were approved.

Mr. King, representing the Christian Endeavor Association, appeared before the board with the suggestion to that organization to hold its annual three day convention of 1917 in the month of March, in Glendale. On motion of Trustee Williams, the city manager was requested to prepare and send such an invitation in the name of the board.

A communication was read from the California Round-Up association of San Jose, calling attention to the plans of the organization for a grand rodeo in the city of San Jose, July next, and extending an invitation to the officials of this city to visit San Jose on that occasion. On motion of Trustee Grist the city clerk was instructed to acknowledge the invitation and the same was ordered to be filed.

Mr. Davis addressed the board in reference to the condition of First street at Verdugo road, to which he had previously called attention. He stated that he had had a communication from Mr. Garner, owning property on that corner, and whose representative he was, complaining that serious injury is being done to his property by the accumulation of water at that point, and wanting to know the intentions of the city. The city manager made a statement in regard to the matter, expressing his belief that satisfactory work of a permanent character could not be done there under present conditions, but if property owners immediately interested do not object to the plan, he believed that some satisfactory work of a temporary character can be done. Mr. Hartley also spoke on the subject; he favored putting in a pipe on the west side of Verdugo road to drain the water from First street. On motion of Trustee Thompson the matter was referred to the city manager with power to act.

On motion of Trustee Thompson, the hearing on the reassessment of Canada Boulevard was called at this time. No one appearing in protest and no protests being on file, on motion of Trustee Tower, "A Resolution of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale confirming the reassessment for the improvement of Canada Boulevard from the South line of Wabasso Way to the North line of Tract No. 250" was taken up for reading. On motion of Trustee Thompson, the same upon being read was adopted.

A communication was read from the city engineer making a report as requested at the last meeting as to the nature of improvements practicable to be made on Pacific avenue between Broadway and Colorado street. On motion the communication was ordered to be filed. The city manager also made a report on the same subject in regard to temporary repairs, with an estimate of the cost of the same and a comparison of the expense of oiling and sprinkling the street from Broadway south to the city limits. Mr. Henderson addressed the board in reference to the matter. Mr. Hammond and Mr. Evans, property owners on Pacific avenue, expressed their willingness to pay their portion of the cost of putting in sidewalk and curb on this section of the street, but did not think it possible to have permanent improvements made at this time. On motion of Trustee Grist the matter was referred to the city engineer to make estimate of the cost and prepare petition for the work.

A communication was read from Mr. A. T. Cowan, proprietor of the Glendale News and Tri-City Progress, stating that having been awarded the contract for official publications in the Tri-City Progress, he is willing to publish such notices also in the Glendale Evening News without extra charge to the city in cases where no other paper is paid for printing such publications. Upon motion, the communication was ordered to be filed, and the trustees expressed their appreciation of the liberal offer.

The city manager reported having been present on this date at a meeting with the Board of Supervisors, devoted to the discussion of the question of sewage.

WATERSHED DANGER

M. V. HARTRANFT OF LITTLELANDS SAYS GLENDALE SHOULD GUARD AGAINST FOREST FIRES

Up among the Verdugo hills the fine weather is gradually making the trees and brush as dry as tinder. Back of Littlelands Mr. M. V. Hartman and others have been working hard cutting passages through the brush in order to make it possible to fight the dangerous summer fires that so often start there when the smallest spark will set the brush going.

"Now is the time," said Mr. Hartman to a representative of The Glendale Evening News, "to guard against this danger. We have found it absolutely necessary to cut paths through the brush in order to make it possible to fight the inevitable fires. If ever a fire starts in the Verdugo hills back of Glendale on the Glendale watershed there will be no means of getting into the brush to fight the outburst. At present in the greater part of that watershed there is absolutely no means of getting in. The fire if once started would just smoulder away and burn off the greater part of the small protection still available against the floods. Once that protection disappears it will be a hundredfold more difficult to deal with the flood question.

"In our own district we have had to extinguish fires several times, but the work has been comparatively easy because we could get at them. I along with others have also extinguished several fires in the Verdugo hills and, knowing the conditions as I do, I hate to think of what will happen if that protection is once gone. It is becoming more easy every day for floods to do damage in the lower country. The more the brush is cut and the more the land is graded as at Montrose the more rapid is the gathering of the waters; the greater its volume and the greater the damage it does.

"Some time ago we took a party from Glendale to the hills to see what was the effect of the attempt to offset the flood waters by check dams. I feel convinced that what the city manager of Glendale and others of that party saw that day was sufficient to have convinced them that the check dam system ought to be spread through every canyon in the back hills which constitute the Glendale watershed, as well as in Haines canyon where they saw it.

"No matter what may be said by theorists there is the practical demonstration of what can be done to stop the flood waters where they originate. In those upper canyons the water can be detained and retained and the growth of thick underbrush and trees be encouraged until the whole flood evil disappears. I am convinced that it would be a good thing for many of the people of Glendale and other cities in the flood district to take a trip to the back country and understand that the evil must be combated up there as well as in the city.

"This flood problem is susceptible of control and the control must begin with these check dams in the canyons and with the preservation from destruction of the underbrush and the trees that retain the water. Somebody should get busy at once on the task of cutting fire-fighting tracks through the brush on the hills. Work of that kind just at the present moment will mean the salvation of a great part of the flood protection. No one can tell when the floods or the fires will come; but everybody should be ready to fight them and to avoid the serious damage they do."

GLENDALE CITY UNION

Glendale City W. C. T. U. is progressing favorably. Friday afternoon, March 17, at 2:30, Mrs. J. N. and Miss Olive Marsh will entertain the City Union at 211 Cedar street. An informal reception will be tendered Miss M. A. Spencer, missionary from Japan, also a member of the World's organization as president of the Tokio Auxiliary Union, who will address the meeting. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Ruby Smart, state superintendent of the State World's Missionary fund, and a silver offering is asked for this fund, which is for the purpose of sending temperance missionaries and organizers into foreign lands, to propagate the principles of prohibition. All friends of the cause are cordially invited.

JAPAN AND CHINA

There is little doubt that Japan occupies a very different position toward China than does any other power. Japan is closer geographically to China and will always be in a position to subject that country to a strong influence. It is manifest that now when China is not in a position to resent outside interference with her affairs is the time when Japan will naturally strengthen her influence in the Celestial empire.

One of the effects of the European war is that it leaves Japan a free hand in China. The European powers are too much occupied with fighting among themselves to be able to do anything to check the growing power of Japan over China. The Japanese speak a language that differs very slightly from that of China and every educated Japanese is practically able to understand Chinese, at least with a little practice. He can at least understand the dialects of several of the provinces and that is what many Chinamen themselves cannot do.

It stands to reason that the country that is going to have the greatest influence in China is a country of this kind.

With the exception of the Russians few outside nations try to understand the Chinese or to get into sympathetic touch with that ancient race. Japan does understand them and though the Chinese have a race hatred for the Japanese calling them many opprobrious names yet they cannot resist the push and vigor of the clever and adaptive islanders.

Japan is not at all altruistic in her policy. In fact she cannot afford to be unselfish. Nevertheless anyone who understands the Japanese character knows that these motives will never be sordid. Were the Chinese markets to be closed against Japan that country would be ruined. Japan knows that and the knowledge underlies all her Chinese policy just as it would underlie the policy of the United States under similar circumstances.

Nevertheless Japan takes a high view of her relationship with China and of the part that the island kingdom is to play in the far east. Count Okuma long ago said that Japan had a mission in the Oriental world. Corrupt and lacking in national spirit China is in danger of disintegration and decay. Such a collapse Japan is anxious to prevent as it would involve her own loss. Thus it may be expected that Japan will try to become the regenerator of China.

HUNTING DOWN GEN. VILLA

Villa, the bandit, having cast aside all considerations of decency and having thrown down the gage of defiance to the United States is now riding the hills of Sonora in perfect confidence that he will be able to evade his pursuers. It is likely that he will be able to do this for a time at least. Villa is an old hand at this game and knows the mountainous country through which he must be pursued probably better than any of those who are hunting for him.

It sounds very well to say that the Carranzistas have managed to surround Villa and that his capture is a mere matter of a few days. It is very possible that it may be a matter of months and then will probably be effected by the treachery of some of his own followers. Unless the Carranzistas have the assurance at present that some one of Villa's followers will betray him their confidence that they will capture him is rather premature.

It may be remembered that when he was a much younger man Villa took to the hills and bade defiance to the troops of Diaz and of Madero until at last Madero was glad to take him into the fold. It may be just as difficult at the present moment to capture the wily brigand. If closely pursued he will likely disband and disperse his followers and betake himself through some of the secret passes of the mountains to fastnesses where he cannot be followed by troops.

There is always the danger that he may be elevated by the people of Mexico as a national hero as the one man who has had the courage to defy and raid the United States. His act has probably made him as popular with the peons as ever was William Tell with the Swiss. The fatuity of the whole proceeding is not so great as the danger that Villa's act at Columbus may involve the two countries in war.

That that danger is imminent is seen in the careful preparations of Gen. Funston, who knows the folly of trusting to promises of a semi-hostile nation and is determined to be prepared for any emergency. Had the United States been ready Villa would never have dared to set his foot across the American border. It is hoped that the proverbial "luck" of the United States will hold good and that the bandit may be caught by his own countrymen and then the whole affair would resolve itself into one of compensation.

It is hoped that by November 1, 1916, nearly one-third of the government railroad in Alaska will be completed. The work is being held up by Congress which has not yet passed the necessary $2,000,000 appropriation. Congressmen are usually desperately ignorant of conditions in Alaska and cannot be got to understand that the working period for railroad construction in that country is confined to four and a half months in the year. The opening of the railroad would mean a wonderful thing for Alaska. It is not only that the Matanuska coalfields would be opened up but also that every mile along the road the country would be opened up laterally and that many rich placer fields would be made available that are at present impossible to develop because of lack of communication. The construction of this railroad is a task of great immensity. At Broad pass the lines will run through twelve miles of solid rock, which will entail the building of many tunnels. The longest of these will be 1100 feet. At Broad pass also will be a bridge 1500 feet in length constructed almost entirely of steel. With a force of 4000 men at work on the line as it is hoped there soon will be the task of completion should be accomplished in good time.

Congress now shows a united front to the world in the matter of increasing the United States army to the legal limit. It looks as though Providence had taken the preparedness question out of the arena of schoolroom debates and afternoon tea gatherings.

Personals

Mr. A. L. Weaver, 235 S. Kenwood street, spent last week in Bakersfield, Cal., on business.

Mrs. M. E. Plasterer, 109 N. Kenwood street, has made application for membership in the Tuesday Afternoon club.

Mrs. Charles I. White, 207 N. Kenwood street, has made application for membership in the Tuesday Afternoon club.

Miss Margaret Nichols of Hawthorne street is spending a few weeks in Bisbee, Arizona, as the guest of Miss Alice Stevens.

Mrs. Frank Grosvenor, Burchett street, is spending the day in Los Angeles, as the guest of Mrs. William Coffman, 1834 Bonnie Brae.

Miss George Duffer of 1008 Chestnut street is spending a few weeks in Los Angeles as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Robert McIntosh.

Rev. J. M. Schoefel, pastor of the Pico Heights, Los Angeles, Congregational church, called on friends in Glendale. Among those who received a call were Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Williford, Mr. J. D. Ashbaugh and Miss Jennie Cornwell.

Many of Glendale's prominent society matrons and maidens are most assiduously observing Lent and the early morning church bells of the Holy Family calls not in vain to early mass, while St. Mark's fashionable membership spend many hours in worship and prayers within the sanctuary of that edifice and at their homes.

FOR LOS ANGELES GUEST

Miss Hope Armstrong proved a most charming hostess when she entertained at the home of her mother, Mrs. Milton Armstrong, 315 Blanche avenue, Friday evening, complimentary to Miss Blanche Weymouth of Los Angeles. Pink and green were most effectively used in the pretty decorations that added a charm and fragrance to the various rooms given over to the evening's festivities. East guest was invited to kiss the Blarney stone and this formality having been dispensed, various games suggestive of St. Patrick were enjoyed.

In a lively and interesting contest Miss Jeannette McLennan received first prize, a box of dainty bon bons, while Miss Katherine Renshaw received the consolation, a Paddy's pig—green of course. Music and dancing were later enjoyed. Miss Armstrong was assisted in the entertainment of her guests by her mother, Mrs. Milton Armstrong, and sisters, Miss Phoebe and Miss Dorothy Armstrong.

Those bidden to honor Miss Weymouth were Miss Helen Munger of Los Angeles, and of Glendale, Miss Ernestine Lyons, Miss Evangeline Hunchberger, Miss Margaret Boucher, Miss Mona Butler, Miss Beth Smith, Miss Jeannette McLennan, Miss Katherine Renshaw, Miss Mildred Wight, Miss Esther Schrempp, Miss Mary Wilkin, Miss Catherine Phillips and Miss Marjorie Imler.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB

Great enthusiasm marked the meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club Tuesday, in the Masonic Temple, when a new, young singer from New York city charmed the large audience by the wonderful quality of her voice. Miss Ethel Saunders, the vocalist in question, sang two of Kate Vanna's songs, with immense effect. The young singer is possessed of a contralto voice of marvelous depth and richness. The quality and beauty revealed in Miss Saunders' voice are very rare indeed and it is easy to prophesy for her most successful career on the Pacific coast and especially in Southern California, which she intends to make her home. Her songs were enthusiastically received.

John S. McGroarty, the historian of California, gave a pleasing and interesting address on "The California Missions." Mr. McGroarty is an authority on this subject and he expounded his topic with his usual enthusiasm and knowledge. At the close of the lecture he recited some of his own poems on Southern California.

There was a large attendance and the audience was resplendent in new costumes and new spring bonnets.

PACKAGE DELIVERY AND EXPRESS

Mr. B. S. Winters has opened a Merchants' Package Delivery and Light Express, at 1218 W. Broadway. This is a service that will be much appreciated in Glendale. Packages will be delivered for ten cents up. Mr. Winters will also handle trunks and baggage at reasonable rates. In view of the fact that the city is growing daily and that there is a constant stream of tourists and visitors during summer and winter alike it should be no difficult task for Mr. Winters to build up a good business here, especially as he devotes all his time and care to his customers, who can reach him by phoning Glendale 1255-M.

CONGREGATIONAL PRAYER MEETING

The Brotherhood of the Congregational church will have charge of the prayer meeting Wednesday evening. It is expected that the male quartet will sing. The women as well as men are cordially invited.

GLENDALE FOOTHILLS

These are busy days at La Ramada. The house has been entertaining as guests a large party of Keystone moving picture players. The company is taking scenes in and about the foothills and in the grounds of La Ramada. This has attracted much attention. The Keystone people are as usual strenuous and amusing in the "stunts" they pull off. In this way La Ramada is likely to get a good deal of advertising. Several parties of tourists from eastern states visited La Ramada Tuesday when touring the foothills. They expressed themselves as delighted with the beautiful grounds and the whole artistic air of the place.

The Parent-Teacher association of the Central Avenue school has planned and arranged a very pleasant entertainment for Friday afternoon and evening. The entertainment will be held in the school. In the afternoon the ladies will hold a sale of food and in the evening an entertainment under the direction of Mrs. Newlin will consist of songs, recitations and music by the children.

TROPICO

The Park Avenue Parent-Teacher association will be the guests of the Cerritos P. T. A. Thursday afternoon, April 20, at which time Mrs. W. C. B. Richardson, chairman of the program committee of the Cerritos P. T. A., is arranging to have Mrs. Ella Flagg Young of Chicago, as the speaker of the afternoon.

The card party with which Mrs. Allen E. Boyce will entertain at her home, 506 South Brand boulevard, Friday, will be featured with a musical which will add much to the evening's pleasures. Mrs. Boyce's beautiful home is located at the intersection of Brand boulevard and San Fernando boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Earl Clements entertained informally at their home, 134 Eulalia street, Monday evening, at cards, complimentary to Mrs. Clements' uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Barnes of Logansport, Indiana, who are spending the winter in Southern California. A number of Mr. and Mrs. Clements' most intimate friends of Tropico and Glendale composed the merry coterie who enjoyed a most delightful evening.

Mrs. Andy Stephenson, Mrs. Clyde R. Carmack, Mrs. Ella W. Richardson and Mrs. Anastasia Moore will be hostesses tomorrow afternoon, at the regular semi-monthly meeting of the Tropico Thursday club. The program promises to be one of unusual interest, as Dr. Jessie A. Russell of Glendale, who is a member of the local club, will give a talk on "Proposed Legislation of Interest to Women." Dr. Russell is a most interesting speaker and presents all her splendid arguments with most convincing effect. And the subject with which this brilliant club woman will feature tomorrow's program will be of especial interest and importance to every club member as well as to every woman of Tropico. No doubt there are a number of men who will be interested in the subject as presented by Dr. Russell. The club meeting will be held in the council chamber room of the city hall.

Mrs. Harry Hall Carrick and sons Thomas and Harry Hall Carrick, Jr., of San Francisco, are the guests of Mrs. Carrick's mother and sister, Mrs. M. E. Cole and Miss Helen Cole of West Park avenue.

A TIP

Take this tip from your friend Lilly.

Now is the time to secure a loan on your real estate, or renew your present mortgage.

I have noticed that money conditions in California often change in a day's time.

With the least flurry in conditions, money instantly becomes timid and shrinking.

Just now money is bold and aggressive. Take advantage of that rare mood.

I have never been able to treat borrowers quite so cordially as right now.

See me at 410 S. Brand, next to Chaffee's.
